Disclaimer

This Report has been prepared by KPMG LLP (“KPMG”) on the basis set out in KPMG’s proposal to the Welsh Government dated 10 April 2013, the Welsh Governments contract award letter dated 25 June 2013 and KPMG’s acceptance letter dated 1 August 2013 (these combined documents referred to here as the “Engagement Letter”).

This Report is for the benefit of the Welsh Government and the Local Authority to which it refers, which KPMG has agreed in writing to treat as addressees of the Engagement Letter (the “Beneficiaries”), and has been released to the Beneficiaries on the basis that it shall not be copied, referred to or disclosed, in whole or in part, without KPMG’s prior written consent.

This Report is not suitable to be relied on by any party wishing to acquire rights against KPMG (other than the Beneficiaries) for any purpose or in any context. Any party other than the Beneficiaries that obtains access to this Report or a copy (under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 or otherwise) and chooses to rely on this Report (or any part of it) does so at its own risk. To the fullest extent permitted by law, KPMG does not assume any responsibility and will not accept any liability in respect of this Report to any party other than the Beneficiaries.

In preparing this report, the primary source of information has been internal management from both the Welsh Government and the Local Authority to which this report refers. KPMG does not accept responsibility for such information which remains the responsibility of the Welsh Government and the Local Authority to which this report refers. KPMG has satisfied themselves, so far as possible, that the information presented in the report is consistent with other information which was made available to them in the course of their work in accordance with the Engagement Letter. KPMG has not, however, sought to establish the reliability of the sources by reference to other evidence. The analysis undertaken by KPMG has been of a high level nature and has been undertaken following discussions with the Welsh Government and the Local Authority’s officers. The scope of KPMG’s work is different from that for an audit and, consequently, no assurance is expressed by KPMG.

Fitness Check – Procurement Maturity Assessment

Caerphilly Executive Summary

Overall Maturity Rating

Developing towards advanced

Organisational Context

- Caerphilly have a mature central procurement team. They have embedded process across the organisation and deliver quality out comes for internal customers/stakeholders.
- There is currently a changing organisational culture which, we understand, will strengthen procurement compliance and governance over the coming months, as well as increase the profile of the procurement team across the organisation.
- A central focus area for procurement is economic development and support to local business, as well as maximising value for money in procurement and commissioning activities. This focus led to a recent Minister's visit in recognition of the MTCBC & CCBC collaboration for the River Link Project. This project included trainees from the Value Wales trainee programme and demonstrated Caerphilly's commitment to collaboration, procurement trainee development and social and economic regeneration.
- Caerphilly have received several awards for procurement excellence and are involved in various procurement collaborative initiatives with other Local Authorities. Caerphilly has participated in a number of Strategic Welsh Reviews demonstrating their engagement and commitment to collaboration.

Model Dimension

Recommended Actions

Procurement leadership & governance

- The next step for Caerphilly centralised procurement is to further increase internal relationships and develop stakeholder management plans and continue to raise the level of procurement understanding across the organisation.

Procurement strategy & objectives

- Reintegration of Procurement should be a standing agenda item on Senior Leadership Team meetings.

Defining the supply need

- Development of Directorate Plans (category strategies) with key stakeholders to ensure organisational objectives take account and advantage of procurement requirement as well as the service delivery perspective.

Commodity/project strategies and collaborative procurement

- Leveraging the Directorate plans, these strategies will need to drive strategic partnerships and consideration of alternate service delivery models and commercial arrangements as the next step in Caerphilly's maturity.

Contract and supplier management

- Aligned with the recommendation above, more strategic supplier relationships will develop from and be enhanced through greater attention to contract management – post award, from a Directorate and central team perspective.

Key purchasing processes and systems

- Ongoing performance monitoring of the outcomes of the P2P initiative by the central team, including providing feedback to key internal stakeholders on benefits realisation and improvements.

People

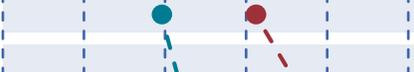

- Continuation of the informal mentoring and coaching in place currently within the central team. Internal relationships strengthened and informal networking / knowledge sharing activities outside of the central procurement team.

Performance management

- Customer and supplier feedback will be an organic product of strengthened relationships developed through greater contract management and internal relationship management.
